FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

La Lumiere School Summer Academic Programs Open to all High School Students

LaPorte, Ind. – May 14, 2010 – La Lumiere School announces its academic program for Summer 2010. In addition to enrichment programs for incoming students, La Lumiere School will open enrollment for summer academic classes to students from all high schools.

The summer academic offerings, which are taught by La Lumiere's outstanding faculty and satisfy the Indiana Core 40 requirements include: Government and Economics from June 16 to July 2 and Geometry from June 16 to July 16. A semester's credit will be awarded upon successful completion of the Government and Economics courses and a full year's credit will be awarded for the Geometry course.

Raise your SAT scores in a short period of time. A rigorous SAT Boot Camp will be offered on campus Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6:30-9:00 pm from June 14 to July 14. Not for the faint of heart, this intensive SAT Boot Camp provides students with test-taking skills and strategies to help raise scores for college admittance.

Registration is required by June 4. Registration forms are available on our website at www.lalumiere.org, by emailing summer@lalumiere.org, or by calling the School at 219.326.7450. For additional information regarding our course offerings, please ask for Mrs. Eguizabal (ext. 123) or Mr. Spingler (ext. 127).
